

Ms. Kelley came to Littleton as the Executive Director for Human Resources in 2007. She has been an Education Program Specialist in the Highly Qualified Professionals Unit at the Arizona Department of Education during the years 2005-2007. While there she was awarded the THNI (Targeted High Needs Initiative) grant from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards to promote certification in the 14 school districts serving the City of Phoenix. She was also responsible for the formation of the State Board of Education's Performance Based Compensation System Task Force while serving as the State Superintendent's designee.

Ms. Kelley is an adjunct professor for the University of Phoenix; instructor for Masters in Curriculum and Instruction, Masters in Teaching, and Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education. She has been highly involved in Professional Development during her career, serving as an Instructional Coach, coordinator and facilitator of a teacher induction program to assist teachers new to the profession.

She has received the following achievements and recognition:

- 2003 Teacher of the Year nominee for West Point Elementary School
- 2002 Silvaroli Language and Literacy Award nominee
- 2001 Teacher of the Year nominee for Hilton Head Elementary School
- 2000 Disney Teacher of the Year nominee
- 1999 National Board Certified Teacher/Middle Childhood Generalist